Mix To Go MAGAZINE

#22 | May 1-22, 2010

ON THE GO AND IN THE MIX

WELCOME to an all new issue of Mix To Go Magazine.

We continue to celebrate the spring season with new events and music in our pocket-sized guide. This issue is now 16 pages in print AND online in celebration of our first anniversary.

TRAVEL: We have added new events, such as the Memorial Weekend celebration in NYC and "The Rhythm & Soul Music Festival" in Atlanta this coming September (both firsts) and the addition of a new cruise ("The Super Cruise IV") and the return of another ("The 11th Annual Hustle & Salsa Cruise") next January. "Toronto Carnival" is also back a first since 2006 and "Dance Parade 2010"

IN THE MIX: Our first anniversary issue features FOUR mixed compilations on CD and online: "Traveling Music 2010" featuring original dance tracks; "Hits In The Mix" returns from a previous issue with hip-hop, R&B, soca and club (recorded live at Crystals Bar & Lounge in Brooklyn); "A Journey Into Sade" returns with six all new reconstructions of all her hits in a dance mix while "A Journey Into Guru" is a mix of his hits with Gangstarr and Jazzmatazz series. All are produced by DJ FREEDOM.

COMMUNITY: "Dance Parade 2010" is a celebration of dance from around the world AND the preservation of legal dancing in bars, lounges & nightclubs. Mix To Go is proud to cover this event in its fourth year. Sunday, June 13 we'll attend two NYC events: "Autism Speaks" at South Street Seaport (10:30am) then "Show And Prove" at Harriet Tubman School in Harlem (2-6pm). We continue to advocate for homeless families via "Picture The Homeless" (thanks, Lynn!), and organize small groups of black professionals for social and economic empowerment (see the BPGA ad editorial on page 14).

FINAL DESTINATION: Our "State Of The Artist" column will return next issue while our "Giving Back" column will only be featured in our weekly eblast and on our website. Photos & stories of events we cover will be featured on our site as well as extensive detail about future events.

See you in the mix!
